

“Psychological Interventions and Sex Crimes – Issues in Assessment and Treatment”

By

William V. Burlingame, Ph.D.
Stuart Groll, Ph.D.
Ellen I. Koski-Ponton, Ph.D., LMFT
William M. Tyson, Ph.D.

Friday, September 23 2011

PARTICIPANT EVALUATION

Using the scale below, please answer each of questions 1-7 with a number from 1 to 5:

ONE IS LOWEST AND FIVE IS HIGHEST

	1	2	3	4	5
	Poor		Adequate		Excellent
1. The physical facilities (e.g. room, equip. etc.) were:					_____
2. Instructional materials were:					_____
3. How well did this program meet your needs?					_____
4. How effective was this program at motivating you to continue to learn in this area?					_____
5. The organization and presentation of the content was:					_____
6. The Panel’s teaching methods were:					_____
7. The Panel’s knowledge of this subject was:					_____

Rate how well you understood the learning objectives by completing before and after, with one circle in each section. ONE IS LOWEST AND FIVE IS HIGHEST

Before						After
1	2	3	4	5	Be able to describe the manifestation of sexual impulse as it applies to legally defined transgressions and legal proceedings	1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5	Be able to articulate the ethical dilemmas and conflicts surrounding evaluative and therapeutic activities conducted in a legal context	1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5	Be able describe the adaptation of accepted psychological practices to this specific population when conducted under Court imposed contingencies	1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5	Be able to describe differences in practice for juvenile and adult offenders	1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5	Be able to describe differences in legal proceedings and resources for juvenile and adult offenders	1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5	Be able to describe the risks and potential repercussions of psychological interventions conducted without proper understanding of the offender characteristics and the legal context	1	2	3	4	5

(over)

Please answer the following: PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY

1. WHAT SPECIFICALLY ATTRACTED YOU TO THIS WORKSHOP?

- NCPA Newsletter
- Colleague
- Flyer
- Title/Topic
- NCPA Website

- Presenter's Reputation
 - NCPA Email
 - Other
-

2. WHAT WERE THE BEST FEATURES OF THE WORKSHOP? PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY

3. WHAT WERE THE WORST FEATURES OF THE WORKSHOP? PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY

4. SUGGESTIONS FOR IMPROVING THIS WORKSHOP: PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY

5. SUGGESTED TOPICS AND SPEAKERS FOR FUTURE PROGRAMS: PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY

Your Profession _____

Years in Practice _____