

North Carolina Psychological Association

1004 Dresser Court, Suite 106; Raleigh, NC 27609

Phone: 919/872-1005 Fax: 919/872-0805 mary@ncpsychology.org www.ncpsychology.org

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

July 1, 2017 - June 30, 2018

How Did You Hear About NCPA? (check one)

Website Conference/Workshop Recruitment University/School OR

NCPA Member (name) Other

Name: Current Degree

Mailing Address

City State Zip

Daytime Phone County of Residence

E-mail Year Rec'd Degree

Are you licensed in NC? YES NO Category of Licensure: LP LPA

DUES: Members Income Over $35,001 -$325.00 Income $35,000 & under-$280.00

Table with columns for Early Career Psychologists (based on when degree received) and Retired/Semi Retired- with rates for various years and categories.

See below for qualifications

(Life Member Qualifications Contact NCPA 919.872.1005)

Payment Plan (4 equal payments in whole dollars plus a $20 payment plan fee) Charge Card only (Visa/MasterCard)

Signature

NOTE: PLEASE INCLUDE DUES PAYMENT CHECK OR CHARGE CARD - VISA or MASTERCARD only (complete form below)

Name as it appears on charge card:

Card #: CVC # Expiration Date:

Address Where Card Bill Received:

MEMBERS: Must have a Doctoral or Master's degree in psychology or an area that is psychological in nature. Be currently licensed by the NC Psychology Board or send a Current Official Transcript of graduate degree in psychology.

RETIRED/SEMI-RETIRED: Must have a Doctoral or Master's degree in psychology or an area that is psychological in nature. Fully retired or not working more than 5 hours per week. After 5 years they would be eligible for Life Member.

EARLY CAREER PSYCHOLOGISTS: Must have a Doctoral or Master's degree in psychology or an area that is psychological in nature and received your psychology degree within the last 7 years. Either be currently licensed by the NC Psychology Board or send a Current Official Transcript of your graduate degree in psychology.

STUDENT MEMBERS:

- Graduate Students in advanced study programs in psychology. Application must include a Letter From Department Verifying Degree Candidacy or Current Official Transcript
Undergraduate Students shall be students who are majoring in psychology. Application must include a Letter (on school letterhead) from College or University indicating that student is Majoring in Psychology and Currently Enrolled with Anticipated Graduation Date.

OUT-OF-STATE MEMBERS: Are members who have been in good standing with NCPA and have moved to another state, or persons from another state who wish to become NCPA members. Application must either indicate licensure in North Carolina or include a Current Official Transcript of graduate work in psychology.

AFFILIATE MEMBERS: Must demonstrate an interest in psychology (as evidenced by graduate study, scientific publication, clinical experience, or other acceptable activity in the field) but do not meet member or student member requirements and submit a Current Official Transcript.